

Dear Commissioner,

In any society, a concentration of power is dangerous, and wrong. The media controls the message, and therefore what is known. Our fundamental right of freedom of press is eliminated (in fact) with a concentration of ownership of the media. I strongly appose any further concentration of media ownership.